

Maperath Art Center presents a Painting Workshop in Ireland

July 7th-14th, 2013

7 day workshop will be led by award winning, Hudson Valley artist Janet Howard-Fatta

Work hard, play hard! Join us to paint on location in beautiful, ancient Maperath, Kells, County Meath of Ireland, one hour from Dublin. See and sense the rolling hills, dramatic coastline, old Dublin Streets, and the rich antiquity of Ireland. We will enjoy the extended daylight hours of July with early and mid-day painting sessions. There will be daily demonstrations, critiques, personal instruction, wonderful meals and conversation. We will explore possibilities working with oils and, or watercolors meeting at locations decided by our group.

The spacious accommodations and studio are in a new custom built Irish stone collage set among rolling fields of the countryside. Most meals are self-catering and bountiful, there will also be a few evenings out with local flavor.

Limited to 8 participants.

Reserve early to get best airfaire.

Total workshop cost $1100.

$500. deposit to reserve your place.
